

I will be outraged if telemarketers have the freedom to call my home again. It has been such a relief for my family to not have to wake up to annoying telemarketers at all hours of the day & night. Please reconsider letting these company's call homes that are on the DO NOT CALL List. Thy can reach out to people the old fashioned way, by mail!

Thank you
Jennfer Torres